Introduction:

Numbers are not good and numbers are not bad. A number which is lucky for one may be unlucky for someone else. It is their relationship with a human, environment or an event, which is important. If all things, including you, are placed in a right order with number, the result will be good or else it will not be so good.

When the Almighty has sent us into this world, he has made you fit for it. So even if you don't rely on numerology, you can conquer the world with your good work and hard work. But life may become a bit easier and pleasant if the wind and your luck is slightly tilted rather on your side than being indifferent to you.

Among all the numbers, birth number is the most important as an individual's characteristics, strengths and weaknesses are directly related to the birth number. An individual only has control on self and not the destiny. The destiny number indicates what the destiny is or where the destiny will take you while the birth number indicates what a person wants. A person can always change his wants and desires and work on his weaknesses to succeed in life. Here an argument can be made that if the person's destiny is already written then how can the life be made better. Destiny number indicates whether an individual will be able to get results easily or not.

Weakness

MISSING NUMBER "3" "PLANNING & IMAGINATION"

People without number 3 in their charts may suffer from a lack of self-confidence and also find it tough to express themselves on most occasions. This shall carry on for the initial years of their lives and may become better only once they learn to accept themselves as they are. Once that happens these people shall gain confidence, self-belief and self-esteem from all their endeavors. Till then they tend to underestimate their abilities which lead to their self-effacing attitude.

Direction: East
Element: Wood
Effect: Health

REMEDIES

1. Place sceneries of green plants in east
2. Place Lord Brahma Picture in west.
3. Keep objects made of wood like wooden graft, table, glass, clock etc.

REMEDIES

1. Tie Yellow thread on wrist
2. Keep Jupiter Yantra
3. Keep wooden pen or wooden key ring with you

REMEDIES

1. Chant Gayatri Mantra daily
2. Respect old people and your teachers
3. Apply Saffron Tilak daily

Jupiter Mantra:

Note: - You can choose any one remedy from each.

MISSING NUMBER "7" "DISAPPOINTMENTS"

Decidedly inconsiderate and insensitive, when it comes to others' feelings, such people live a self-immersed life. They are usually disorganized in everyday life and tend to remain aloof from anything remotely spiritual or metaphysical. They are not independent and self-sufficient on most occasions and hate being left on their own. They become better once they learn to convey their feelings well and in turn become relaxed with other people.

Direction: West
Element: Metal/Space
Effect: Children

3. Do fast on thursday

Ketu Mantra:

Note: - You can choose any one remedy from each.

Positive Numbers

Positive Number 1

1 is located at the bottom left column of the chart and hence at the beginning of the Practical plane as well. This placement is an important clue as to how the native will communicate and behave in interpersonal relations.

For people with only one number 1 in their charts, it is difficult to express their inner most feelings and desires. They are unable to convey their true feelings, even though they may not necessarily be bad at communication, at other levels. It will also be hard for them to be able to appreciate other person's point of view.

Positive Number 111 Such people may have a duality when it comes to their personality. But one thing is for sure that such people are outgoing and entertaining (many famous entertainers have this combo). Coming back to the ambivalence - people with three number 1s may either be complete chatterboxes or they may be quiet and introspective. The truth is that they are actually both, and their personality manifestation depends on situation.

Positive Number 2

It is the first number on the emotional plane, and is often an indicator of a person's intuitiveness and sensitivity.

Such people tend to be quite sensitive and intuitive, but can also be easily hurt. Blessed with an uncanny ability and discretion to see through other people's insincerity, these people are naturally good judges of others. The famous astrologer and the Doomsday Naysayer Nostradamus were born with one 2 in his chart.

Positive Number 4

A number that is practical and hard-working, 4 is associated with the qualities of labour and hands-on practical approach. It also indicates balance. No wonder that the natives with this number tend to be neat, tidy, prim and proper.

People with this combination in their Numerology chart tend to be practical, earthy and basically good with manual work. They tend to enjoy 'hands-on' approach and such vocations. A more than practically needed emphasis on theories and imagination makes them impatient. The digit also relates to work like handicrafts and pottery, and even instrumental music. Such people also are good organizers.

Positive Number 5

The Number 5 occupies the central position in the Numerology chart. It is an indicator of mental balance and emotional stability, and also relates to freedom of the spirit.

Emotionally stable and balanced, people with one Number 5 in their chart find it easy to motivate and inspire others. Their compassionate and caring nature allows them to positively reinforce others in a manner that makes them achieve and perform much more than they otherwise would have.

Positive Number 6

Located right in the centre of the top row, Number 6 relates to creativity and familial and filial love. Such people who have a balanced amount of Number 6 in their charts are usually home lovers, and enjoy their domestic responsibilities.

People with one 6 in their numerology chart have a great family, and home love. Obviously, they make excellent parents, and equally good children. They love handling their domestic responsibilities, and they also have a good amount of creative potential. Most often, they are the people in their families to whom everyone wants to come to, when things go awry. However, such people can be quite insecure, and may remain constantly worried about their family members' well-being.

Positive Number 8

An indicator of observation power and astuteness, this number relates to attention to detail.

Methodical, fastidious and immaculate about details, people with one Number 8 in their Numerology chart have restless, active minds that crave mental challenges. However, on the flip-side, these people often find it difficult to finish the tasks they, very enthusiastically, had initiated.

Positive Number 9

It's obvious that everyone born in this century has at least one 9 in his/her chart. This number is good and is humanitarian. It represents idealism, courage, ambition and self-belief. The Number 9 is on both the mental plane and the action line. And it is one of the reasons that humankind has made such giant strides of development in the present century.

Possessing a strong, marked desire for self-improvement, people with one 9 in their Numerology chart are quite ambitious. All the people alive today have at least one 9, and it's undeniably true that we all have much more humanity inside us than we tend to express. An important lesson from this fact we can derive is that even numbers favour humanitarian tasks, and we all need to re-learn and nurture this philanthropic side of ours.

Positive Number 99 - Idealistic, intelligent and astute, these people are quite likely to be critical of others. And many times, they can be blunt and derogatory. Since they themselves are near-gifted in the intelligence department, they might even look down upon others. They desperately need to cultivate the ability to shun their personal biases and gel with others. Kareena Kapoor is one such Indian celebrity with two 9s in her chart; her birthday falls on 21st September 1990.

Your Prediction for 2024

PERSONAL YEAR 5

What does freedom mean to you? More time? Money? A different job? Different marital situation? "Freedom" and "change" are your themes for the year and it can feel like a whirlwind-so many pleasures, so little time! There are lots of ups and downs, so the key for this year is flexibility, adaptability, and focus-otherwise "drama" may also be a recurring theme this year.

Lots of unexpected opportunities are bound to come your way, so be open to trying new things. It's time to travel and tap into your sense of fearless adventure-not necessarily a time to make a long-term commitment. The key to this year is establishing and acting on some semblance of self-discipline, otherwise you'll get to the next year feeling like this year has been one big hangover. You'll have plenty of sex appeal right now, so understand that your alluring energy can offer plenty of sensual pleasures.

Change is your mantra and you're getting ready for transitions toward the end of the year, yet the first part of the year might have you spinning. After the more practical energies of your 4 Personal Year, the energy of the 5 can feel intoxicating. Often the year starts out with a bang right out of the chute. You'll often be met with new people, new experiences, and new opportunities. Anytime you can opt to venture off your beaten track is favored in a 5 Personal Year. This is a progressive time when you'll be pushed to explore the sensual side of life.

This is a pivotal year-remember it's mid-way through your 9-year Personal Year Cycle. This year can be a turning point for change and transition. Freedom is calling and you're required to throw your hat into the ring. What is your answer? Of course, there's nothing like defining your sense of freedom to bring up some long-held issues surrounding this very theme. Therefore the 5 Personal Year offers a plethora of opportunity to face your fears, dismantle restrictions, and rekindle your sense of adventure.

This can be a year where uncertainty rules the roost and oftentimes that can feel disconcerting, if not downright unacceptable. Some of the caveats include excessive behaviors-sex, drugs, alcohol and all the rest of it. Or excessive behaviors on the opposite pole-overwork, under eating, too much exercise. Or you might succumb to the fear factor and find yourself retracting and retreating. You might feel the siren call of escape and opt for numbing or zoning out rather than focusing and reigning in all the high-level energies you have access to right now.

Your Prediction for 2025

PERSONAL YEAR 6

After your freewheeling 5 Personal Year last year, it's time to buckle up and put on your big boy or big girl pants. It's a year devoted to home, family, and responsibility—a time to regroup, nurture, and be nurtured.

There will be heightened levels of family-based responsibility this year. This is a time where all relationships are highlighted. It's a good year to get married or engaged if you've been hovering around that decision. This is a perfect year to attract "the one" or to recommit and "grow" your current intimate relationship. It's also a time where you may seek a divorce, a break-up, or other relationship splits.

This can be called the "marriage and divorce" year—and that can be seen both literally and metaphorically. It's all about evaluating the relationships in your life, starting with your relationship with you. This is the year where you'll finally feel that "click" in knowing if a separation is necessary or you can also have the clarity you've been waiting for and officially say "I Do." Either way, these decision-making moments will peak this year.

The energy of the number 6 tests your sense of idealism, particularly when it comes to relationships. Do you give yourself a way to your kids, spouse, parents, boss, or friends? Or do you level judgment on those around you, impeding your—and their—happiness? It's time to investigate how you feel empowered or disempowered in your domestic life. Oftentimes this is a year where you'll be asked to take on some additional responsibilities with friend and family that may come in the form of a wedding, graduation, birth of a baby, military deployment, a loved one's health crisis, or any other unusual family event. The trick is to participate in the way you want to participate. Take on the responsibility without resentment or over-giving. Or take on the responsibility if your tendency is to avoid it.

This is also a year where your home takes a front seat. Do you have a desire to move? Redesign the kitchen or bath? Revitalize the yard with a new landscaping design, water feature, or planter? This is the perfect time to beautify your home on any level. On the career front—it's a "make or break" time for business. Your theme song for the year "Should I Stay or Should I Go?"

PERSONAL YEAR 7

This year is all about delving inward. While you may see yourself functioning fairly normally, this is a time where you'll be heavily involved in deep inner work. It's a spiritual year-meaning, you'll have many opportunities to test your sense of spirituality, however you define it.

This is a year where your faith and trust will be tested and you'll feel as though you want to retreat from the static of the outside world. You'll feel more quiet, detached, and introspective than usual, so don't let that surprise you.

It's a year where you're gathering data, collecting knowledge, and probing your own inner depths. Don't push it-that can wait until next year when you start a three-year transition cycle. This is the year for a retreat, sabbatical, or just additional "alone" time.

Your mission-should you choose to accept it is to explore the depths of your soul's calling and be willing to recalibrate yourself so that you come into alignment with the you that you're excavating this year. This can be a valuable time to evaluate your sense of independence and how you've chosen to take the lead in your life.

While you may still see yourself functioning fairly normally, this is a year where you'll be heavily involved in inner work. This is a year where your faith and trust could be tested. It's a time of deep contemplation or if you're working with more destructive tendencies in this cycle-big feelings of being a victim in your life. This is a time for introspection, meditation, and spiritual study. It's also a good time for counseling or therapy, energy work, and anything else that allows you deep personal growth. You need to truly embrace you during this time. This is the "me" year in which the Universe is giving you full permission to contemplate your own navel.

This may be a year where you are quiet and not as outwardly communicative as usual, so be clear when dealing with your relationships. Let your loved ones know it's not them you're responding to; it's just what you need this year. Often people report that difficult and painful events happen to them during a 7 Personal Year. It has the potential to rival the 9 Personal Year in terms of facing challenges like loss, letting go, health issues, or other events that people typically find hard to handle. It's a year to cultivate a balance between your intuition and your analytic mind.
