NUMBERS, PLANETS AND THEIR ATTRIBUTES

Number 1 Ruled by Sun

Dates Covered Under Ruling No. 1-1, 10, 19 and 28.

The people of 1 number are authoritative and have leadership qualities. They are punctual and disciplined. They take responsibility and fulfil it. They love attention and appreciation and usually occupy high positions in society. Strong, determined and with specific purpose in life, they know how to turn their dreams into reality. They lead a disciplined and honest life. For them, their dignity is of prime importance. They have good analytical knowledge and sharp intelligence by way of which they grasp things easily. Sun gives them power and fortune to rule. It trusts its ability to separate right from wrong. It does not waste time on abstract ideas or follow paths that are not in line with its result-oriented goals. The 1 can be confrontational, jealous and exceedingly stubborn, but also courageous and willing to try anything new (with promise) even at great risk. The 1 has a sense of honour and responsibility that demands our respect, and is the first to defend injustice and hypocrisy. If you are in trouble, you want a friend with a strong 1 on your side - there is not a more dedicated protector or braver partner. If the 1 is your enemy, you will be crushed without mercy. If you have a 1 in your core numbers, your happiness and sense of satisfaction will come from your work more than any other source. Example - Mukesh Ambani, Lata Mangeshkar, Ricky Ponting, Bill Gates, Mary Kom, Anushka Sharma, etc.

Diseases Prone to

High blood pressure, heat stroke, indigestions, heart related problems, spondylitis, jaundice, brain haemorrhage and eye related issues.

Relationships

They get into a lot of affairs in their young years because they have a desire to love and be loved. They get attracted to beautiful people. But in spite of this they face a lot of issues in their married life because of their stubborn nature and want to be at the commanding position all the time. Though they are loyal in their relationships.

Lucky Dates - 1, 10, 19, 28, 4, 13, 22 and 31 are all favourable.

Unlucky Dates - 8, 17 and 26 are unlucky.

Lucky Metal - Gold

Lucky Gemstone-Ruby edant Megatro

Lucky Direction - East

Surya Mantra:

Life Time Suggestions

Check - Keep water motor, house pillar, bulb and tube light in good condition.

Remedies - Offer water to Lord Surya daily early morning. Respect father and Govt. department. Do not eat salt on Sunday.

Number 2 Ruled by Moon

Dates Covered Under Ruling No. 2-2, 11, 20 and 29.

As opposed to number one, this is the most feminine number in the number series. It signifies human soul, mind or spirit. Such people will have extreme behaviors because of the lunar effect of the moon. They are sensitive, fearless, imaginative, intuitive, deep thinkers, day dreamers and suspicious. They have the ability to think out of the box but lack the implementation skills due to confusions. If these people develop a spiritual bent of mind, they gain a lot of self-confidence and grow stronger internally. Since the moon does not have a light of its own, these people are also dependent on others. They are emotionally demanding people and prefer living in solitude. These people really need to control their mind which can be done through meditation and they will have a happy life. Ready to defend you at any cost, the loyalty of the 2 is unshakeable. However, this partner can be emotional and demanding, expecting attention (and devotion) in return. In short, the number 2 is a sensual, graceful, loyal partner who can be a bit demanding, but is worth the trouble. There is another important aspect to the number 2. As the most intuitive of all single-digit numbers, the 2 has keen powers of observation. This faculty helps them recognize the inner needs of people around them, often helping others to understand themselves better. Example Viswanathan Anand, Rahul Dravid, Tina Ambani, Amitabh Bachchan, Shahrukh Khan, etc.

Diseases Prone to

Cold, cough, watery eyes, throat problems, stomach related issues. Chest related issues, stomach, liver, gallbladder, kidney problems, diabetes and addiction issues.

Relationships

These people have a quarrelsome and suspicious nature which disturbs their married life.

Lucky Dates - 7, 16, 25, 1, 10, 19 and 28 are all favourable.

Unlucky Dates - 8, 9, 18, 26 and 27 are unlucky.

Lucky Metal - Silver

Lucky Gemstone - Pearl

Lucky Direction - North-Westent Meesire

Chandra Mantra:

Life Time Suggestions

Check - Keep wash room and all water bodies in good condition. Do not waste water.

Remedies - Keep one silver coin with you in white cloth on Monday. Keep one silver glass and drink at least one time water in that silver glass. Do meditation daily.

Missing Number

MISSING NUMBER "4"

"DISCIPLINE & ORGANISED"

Such people lack organizational skills, and that is the most important quality they need to cultivate within to lead an enhanced life. Working in set routines with strict norms is a major issue for them and they may turn up late usually. They also have a low self- motivation and seriously need to alter their perspective for life, if they wish to make move ahead towards success. Life becomes easier and better for them, once they develop passion for what they want, and more tolerance and patience.

MISSING NUMBER "7" "DISAPPOINTMENTS"

Decidedly inconsiderate and insensitive, when it comes to others' feelings, such people live a self-immersed life. They are usually disorganized in everyday life and tend to remain aloof from anything remotely spiritual or metaphysical. They are not independent and self-sufficient on most occasions and hate being left on their own. They become better once they learn to convey their feelings well and in turn become relaxed with other people.

Repetative Numbers

CHAPTER-7 REPITATIVE NUMBERS AND THEIR REMEDIES

Number 1

1 is located at the bottom left column of the chart and hence at the beginning of the Practical plane as well. This placement is an important clue as to how the native will communicate and behave in interpersonal relations.

Repetitive Number 1 - For people with only one number 1 in their charts, it is difficult to express their inner most feelings and desires. They are unable to convey their true feelings, even though they may not necessarily be bad at communication, at other levels. It will also be hard for them to be able to appreciate other person's point of view.

It is the first number on the emotional plane, and is often an indicator of a person's intuitiveness and sensitivity.

Repetitive Number 2 - Such people tend to be quite sensitive and intuitive, but can also be easily hurt. Blessed with an uncanny ability and discretion to see through other people's insincerity, these people are naturally good judges of others. The famous astrologer and the Doomsday Naysayer Nostradamus were born with one 2 in his chart.

Placed at the top left-handed position of the chart, at the beginning of the Mental Plane, number 3 is also the final number of the thought row. It is largely related to the intellectual ability of a person, and also to the ability to think clearly, lucidly and rationally. It is also a happy and positive number.

Repetitive Number 3 An excellent memory and a marked creative streak are the prominent gains of people who possess one number 3 in their numerology chart. A positive, yet a practical, realistic approach towards the attainment of their goals and an honest optimism towards life set them apart from others, and even make them a source of inspiration for others. The famous Elvis Presley was born with such a chart.

NUMBER 5

The Number 5 occupies the central position in the Numerology chart. It is an indicator of mental balance and emotional stability, and also relates to freedom of the spirit.

Repetitive Number 5 - Emotionally stable and balanced, people with one Number 5 in their chart find it easy to motivate and inspire others. Their compassionate and caring nature allows them to positively reinforce others in a manner that makes them achieve and perform much more than they otherwise would have.

NUMBER 6

Located right in the centre of the top row, Number 6 relates to creativity and familial and filial love. Such people who have a balanced amount of Number 6 in their charts are usually home lovers, and enjoy their domestic responsibilities.

Repetitive Number 6 - People with one 6 in their numerology chart have a great family, and home love. Obviously, they make excellent parents, and equally good children. They love handling their domestic responsibilities, and they also have a good amount of creative potential. Most often, they are the people in their families to whom everyone wants to come to, when things go awry. However, such people can be quite insecure, and may remain constantly worried about their family members' well-being.

NUMBER 8

An indicator of observation power and astuteness, this number relates to attention to detail.

Repetitive Number 8 - Methodical, fastidious and immaculate about details, people with one Number 8 in their Numerology chart have restless, active minds that crave mental challenges. However, on the flip-side, these people often find it difficult to finish the tasks they, very enthusiastically, had initiated.

NUMBER 9

It's obvious that everyone born in this century has at least one 9 in his/her chart. This number is good and is humanitarian. It represents idealism, courage, ambition and self-belief. The Number 9 is on both the mental plane and the action line. And it is one of the reasons that humankind has made such giant strides of development in the present century.

Repetitive Number 9 - Possessing a strong, marked desire for self-improvement, people with one 9 in their Numerology chart are quite ambitious. All the people alive today have at least one 9, and it's undeniably true that we all have much more humanity inside us than we tend to express. An important lesson from this fact we can derive is that even numbers favour humanitarian tasks, and we all need to re-learn and nurture this philanthropic side of ours.

Personal Year 2024

PERSONAL YEAR 4

Get ready to batten down the hatches and get serious about your future. It's time to work hard and sharpen your skill set. After your lighter and creative 3 Personal Year, it's time to slow down, steady your pace and become more methodical about which goals you want to focus on. After last year, chances are you have some projects in the works that need to be tended to and nurtured. This is a more serious year requiring hard work to set the foundation for whatever you're working on: job, relationships, health, or family. Often the first part of a 4 Personal Year feels good in the same way committing to a deep-cleaning of your house feels good. It's like starting to clean out the closets, donate stuff that hasn't been used in years, perhaps you also decide to replace the carpet and update the bathroom. Then you see how much nicer everything looks and feels and take another step and decide to reorganize the office and change the window coverings. Oh-and now that you've done that, you realize you really need to get all your files into one place, color code them, and box them by year and category. Get the picture? So, understand that often there's a burst of energy and enthusiasm at the beginning of a 4 Personal Year and yet as the year wears on, it can start to feel rather arduous. Therefore, it's a good idea to understand at the get-go that a slow and steady pace will get you to the finish line with more of your sanity and good humor in tact than sprinting out of the starting gate in a mad frenzy to get it all done over a weekend.

Since the energy of the number 4 is all about foundations, often you'll find yourself building a house or moving to a new home this year. Home and your sense of security can take front seat. How does this show up for you? A 4 Personal Year can challenge you with health, family, and career issues having to do with "limitation." What limitations are to be worked with and negotiated through? What limitations do you actually create for yourself that aren't necessary? This is a year where you'll be tempted to either over-work or under-work. Optimally, you'll need to forgo Happy Hour and stay a little later at the office to finish up that big report or file, complete the last part of the chapter you're writing, or think through the way you're wanting to systematize your project. It's a year to pay special attention to your health. You'll have to consciously take time for self-care-plan it and prioritize it. A 4 cycle also tests you with some old family issues bubbling to the surface needing to be resolved or dealt with differently. All in all, you'll glean the most satisfaction from your 4 Personal Year when you take the time to focus on goals, systematize your life in whatever way will make it much more effective in the years to come.

Personal Year 2025

PERSONAL YEAR 5

What does freedom mean to you? More time? Money? A different job? Different marital situation? "Freedom" and "change" are your themes for the year and it can feel like a whirlwind-so many pleasures, so little time! There are lots of ups and downs, so the key for this year is flexibility, adaptability, and focus-otherwise "drama" may also be a recurring theme this year.

Lots of unexpected opportunities are bound to come your way, so be open to trying new things.

It's time to travel and tap into your sense of fearless adventure-not necessarily a time to make a long-term commitment. The key to this year is establishing and acting on some semblance of self-discipline, otherwise you'll get to the next year feeling like this year has been one big hangover.

You'll have plenty of sex appeal right now, so understand that your alluring energy can offer plenty of sensual pleasures.

Change is your mantra and you're getting ready for transitions toward the end of the year, yet the first part of the year might have you spinning. After the more practical energies of your 4 Personal Year, the energy of the 5 can feel intoxicating. Often the year starts out with a bang right out of the chute. You'll often be met with new people, new experiences, and new opportunities. Anytime you can opt to venture off your beaten track is favored in a 5 Personal Year. This is a progressive time when you'll be pushed to explore the sensual side of life.

This is a pivotal year-remember it's mid-way through your 9-year Personal Year Cycle. This year can be a turning point for change and transition. Freedom is calling and you're required to throw your hat into the ring. What is your answer? Of course, there's nothing like defining your sense of freedom to bring up some long-held issues surrounding this very theme. Therefore the 5 Personal Year offers a plethora of opportunity to face your fears, dismantle restrictions, and rekindle your sense of adventure.

This can be a year where uncertainty rules the roost and oftentimes that can feel disconcerting, if not downright unacceptable. Some of the caveats include excessive behaviors-sex, drugs, alcohol and all the rest of it. Or excessive behaviors on the opposite pole-overwork, under eating, too much exercise. Or you might succumb to the fear factor and find yourself retracting and retreating. You might feel the siren call of escape and opt for numbing or zoning out rather than focusing and reigning in all the high-level energies you have access to right now.

Personal Year 2026

PERSONAL YEAR 6

After your freewheeling 5 Personal Year last year, it's time to buckle up and put on your big boy or big girl pants. It's a year devoted to home, family, and responsibility-a time to regroup, nurture, and be nurtured.

There will be heightened levels of family-based responsibility this year. This is a time where all relationships are highlighted. It's a good year to get married or engaged if you've been hovering around that decision. This is a perfect year to attract "the one" or to recommit and "grow" your current intimate relationship. It's also a time where you may seek a divorce, a break-up, or other relationship splits.

This can be called the "marriage and divorce" year-and that can be seen both literally and metaphorically. It's all about evaluating the relationships in your life, starting with your relationship with you. This is the year where you'll finally feel that "click" in knowing if a separation is necessary or you can also have the clarity you've been waiting for and officially say "I Do." Either way, these decision-making moments will peak this year.

The energy of the number 6 tests your sense of idealism, particularly when it comes to relationships. Do you give yourself a way to your kids, spouse, parents, boss, or friends? Or do you level judgment on those around you, impeding your-and their-happiness? It's time to investigate how you feel empowered or disempowered in your domestic life. Oftentimes this is a year where you'll be asked to take on some additional responsibilities with friend and family that may come in the form of a wedding, graduation, birth of a baby, military deployment, a loved one's health crisis, or any other unusual family event. The trick is to participate in the way you want to participate. Take on the responsibility without resentment or over-giving. Or take on the responsibility if your tendency is to avoid it.

This is also a year where your home takes a front seat. Do you have a desire to move? Redesign the kitchen or bath? Revitalize the year with a new landscaping design, water feature, or planter? This is the perfect time to beautify your home on any level. On the career front-it's a "make or break" time for business. Your theme song for the year "Should I Stay or Should I Go?"

Front Name Prediction

Number 10

Ruling planet - Sun

Contributing planet/s - Sun

This name number is much better than the name number one, being followed by zero. Their life is like a revolving wheel, with its share of ups and downs but every time they hit their low, they are able to organize the resources and the means, to get back on track in order to keep the momentum going. There is no shortage of funds in their life and thus life a dignified & happy life. Such a name number can be either famous or notorious (famous in bad sense), according to the desires and actions of the person concerned a project through or meeting deadlines.

For business

In case of a business enterprise, it would indicate financial gains and all-round expansion. It is a very favourable number for government organizations being ruled by Sun. Conducting business, having 10 as name number, without corruption would take it to heights.
